ABOUT TODAY'S SPEAKER

District Governor Ted Propes is the single officer of Rotary International in our District. Ted and his wife April live in Marietta. He is a native of Calhoun County, Alabama where he owns a large cattle farm.

Ted Propes began his career in the investment field over 30 years ago with the E.F. Hutton Company, eventually becoming a first vice president in capital markets and investment management. Listed in Who's Who of International Business Leaders, he is Chairman and Chief Investment Officer for Consolidated Capital Management, an investment management and consulting firm based in Atlanta, Georgia.

With a BS from Jacksonville State University and a MBA from the University of Alabama, he has been a leader in community and civic affairs as well.

Ted has served on the Board of Directors of Jacksonville State University in Alabama. The University's business and administration building is named in his honor. Having played football for the Alabama Crimson Tide, he is an avid Tide supporter.

In 2002-2003 he served as President of the Atlanta/Vinings Rotary Club. They received the Al Daniels Award for the Best All Around Club for the very first time. They were also awarded The Sheffield Award for Presidential Leadership, Best Club Service and Best Polio Plus Program.
